

CAN

Demonstrating relevance is key for this group of staff. Staff working in small groups to talk about data at a granular level works well.

Data champions who can help encourage peers and promote the use of data from the staff room.

WON'T

Some of these staff will never be 'converted' which will potentially mean admitting defeat with a minority.

WILL

Cyclic training sessions will help overcome technical barriers. Drop in sessions and extra support will help, as well as having access to clear guidance and notes.
